

Courses in English Course Description

Department	11 Applied Social Sciences
Course title	Global Sessions 2024 Youth Under Pressure: Promoting Health and Wellbeing in an Age of Multiple C
Course number	not yet available (two courses in Bachelor Social Work semester 4 and semester 6)
Hours per week (SWS)	3 SWS (weekend teaching & excursion to Glasgow May 26 to June 1, 2024)
Number of ECTS credits	4 or 5 (depending on which assessment option and course no. is chosen, 4th or 6th semester)
Course objective	intercultural education & international networking enabling students to discuss current challenges of Social Work and Health Care Professions around the world
Prerequisites	willingness to take part in preparatory classes in Munich & excursion to Glasgow (incl. individual financial contribution)
Recommended reading
Teaching methods	Co-teaching, group work, poster & seminar presentations, field work (during excursion), lectures - online
Assessment methods	Academic Poster Presentation & Seminar Paper
Language of instruction	English
Name of lecturer	Prof. Dr. Nicole Pötter & Prof. Dr. Katja Stoppenbrink
Email	katja.stoppenbrink@hm.edu
Link	not yet available
Course content
Remarks	International students and students from other departments are encouraged to take part if they are prepared to engage with the topics addressed and to participate in the international week (either online or with an excursion to Glasgow) - a non-committal preliminary information event will take place in advance - information will be provided by: Prof. Dr Nicole Pötter and Prof. Dr Katja Stoppenbrink