Courses in English
Course Description

Department	12 Design
Course title	201_Design Process / Gestaltungsprozess (KD, FD)
Hours per week (SWS)	4
Number of ECTS credits	6
Course objective	The Design Process-course succeeds the course Foundations of Design. As such, it aims at enhancing and deepening the procedural modes when developing a design. Knowledge about the characteristic design process is obtained, an understanding for the psycho-social processes taking place within the designer developed. Thus, perception and imagination are transferred into design solutions.
Prerequisites	/
Recommended reading	Lecturer's hand outs and recommendations for further reading
Teaching methods	Seminar, developing an exemplary design project, individual feedback, peer teaching Please refer to the department's homepage design.hm.edu for information on whether the courses will be held via Zoom, hybrid, or take place in presence!
Assessment methods	Homework (developing the excercises and a design project), presentations
Language of instruction	German and English on demand
Name of lecturer	Prof. Ben Santo
Email	ben.santo@hm.edu
Link
Course content	• Design-specific terms, methods and interrelationships of the design process • Interaction of head, heart, and hand • Technical and psychological foundations of design • Project organisation • Project communikation Using an exercise project, the stages of the development process will be passed while being supported by ideation methods.
Remarks	The expected workload is 150hrs, self study is 90hrs.