Solutions day

Elements of the Day

1

High level opening remarks

The "Solutions Day" should create a space to share best practices and lessons learnt and demonstrate the link between the innovative solutions and efforts to enhance the climate action. This shall be done through a set of diverse functions ensuring a wide and multi-disciplinary participation of partners and relevant stakeholders.

Friends of greening national budgets / Investment Plans of African and developing countries

The initiative aims at providing climate solutions through shaping the process of planning and design of economic policies in a manner that factors in the impact of climate change, quantify the efforts made in mitigation and adaptation, and identify the gaps of the support needed.

3

Green Entrepreneurship

Success stories of entrepreneurs delivering low-emissions or climate resilient solutions in Egypt and Africa will be brought to stage. It will further discuss supporting mechanisms and programs for climate entrepreneurs, looking at policies that both foster climate entrepreneurs, as well as reduce systemic barriers such as overcoming financing gaps and capacity building.

4

Sustainable Transport and Urban Mobility

The session will include the official launch of the COP 27 presidency initiative in support of equitable, healthy, green and resilient transport pathways, in Africa and the Global South. Innovative technologies will be showcased that are geared towards low-carbon, affordable and healthy transport solutions in the urban environment in the Global South.

Climate Solutions by Private Sector

This session will harness dialogue between Government officials/ policy makers and the private sector where the private sector will showcase its commitment to deliver climate solutions in emerging and developing economies. It will also hold a discussion on challenges and opportunities in creating an enabling environment for private sector involvement in developing climate solutions

Proposal by the President

Draft decision -/CP.27 -/CMA.4

Funding arrangements for responding to loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change, including a focus on addressing loss and damage¹

The Conference of the Parties and the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Paris Agreement,

Recalling the Convention and the Paris Agreement,

Noting the increasing urgency of enhancing efforts to avert, minimize and address loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change in the light of continued global warming and its significant impacts on vulnerable populations and the ecosystems on which they depend, as illustrated by the findings in relevant recent scientific reports, including the contributions of Working Groups I² and II³ to the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change,

Also noting that keeping the global average temperature rise to below 1.5 °C will be essential to limiting future loss and damage and expressing alarm that the contribution of Working Group II to the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate

¹ This item and the outcomes thereof are without prejudice to the consideration of similar issues in the future.

² Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change. 2021. Climate Change 2021: The Physical Science Basis. Contribution of Working Group I to the Sixth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change. V Masson-Delmotte, P Zhai, A Pirani, et al. (eds.). Cambridge: Cambridge University Press. Available at <https://www.ipcc.ch/report/ar6/wg1/>.

Change, in line with other best available science, concluded that the gravity, scope and frequency of loss and damage will continue to increase with every additional fraction of a degree of temperature increase.

The Transitional Committee will make recommendations for consideration by the Conference of the Parties (COP) at COP 28 (November–December 2023) and the Conference of the Parties serving as the meeting of the Parties to the Paris Agreement (CMA) at CMA 5 (November–December 2023) in accordance with paragraphs 4–5 of this decision.

2. The Transitional Committee will serve as a coordination mechanism that guides and oversees, as appropriate, the activities referred to in paragraph 7 of this decision.

3. The work of the Transitional Committee will be concluded with the adoption no later than at COP 28 and CMA 5 of decision(s) related to the new funding arrangements responding to loss and damage associated with the adverse effects of climate change, including a focus on addressing loss and damage, and the fund established in paragraph 3 of this decision.

II. Composition

4. The Transitional Committee shall have 24 members, to be nominated no later than 15 December 2022, comprising 10 members from developed country Parties and 14 members from developing country Parties, with geographical representation as follows:

(a) Three members from Africa, including a representative of the President of COP 27;

(b) Three members from Asia and the Pacific, including a representative of the incoming President of COP 28;

(c) Three members from Latin America and the Caribbean;

(d) Two members from small island developing States;

(e) Two members from the least developed countries;

(f) One member from a developing country Party not included in the categories listed above.

III. Modalities of work

5. The Transitional Committee shall be chaired by two co-chairs, one from a developed country Party and one from a developing country Party.

6. The Transitional Committee will hold at least three meetings per year.

7. The UNFCCC Executive Secretary, in consultation with the President of COP 27, will convene the 1st meeting of the Transitional Committee no later than 31 March 2023.

8. Recommendations of the Transitional Committee shall be adopted by consensus.

9. The Transitional Committee will be guided by the best available science in conducting its work.
